Teaching/ Learning Methodology	Teaching methods used in this course are active lecturing, experiential learning, and case-based learning. In case-based learning, students achieve the learning objectives by discussing and analyzing cases in several groups under guidance of the lecturer. Students are required to submit papers containing an analysis of the cases and to deliver presentation of the cases which is then followed by discussion. This course also applies the experiential learning method in which students are required to analyze tax cases observed in the tax court. Students are required to submit and present their analysis, which is then followed by a discussion. The policy related to plagiarism, cheating and attendance must refer to the faculty regulation.
